Background

Local Law 12 of 2023 (“Local Law 12”), codified as section 23-1004 of the NYC Administrative Code, imposes a requirement on every New York City agency to prepare and publish a five-year accessibility plan, in consultation with the Mayor’s Office for People with Disabilities (“MOPD”). The legislation mandates that the accessibility plans outline the steps agencies are taking to “ensure that the agency’s workplace, services, programs and activities are accessible to and accommodating and inclusive of persons with disabilities” by improving physical, digital, and programmatic access, and providing effective communications for persons with disabilities. These efforts include, but are not limited to: any alterations or structural changes to facilities or premises that are owned and operated by the agency or contracted for use by the agency or otherwise under the agency’s jurisdiction; any planned upgrades or investments in technology or tools that will improve accessibility within the agency or access to such agency’s services and programs; and additional steps to make the agency’s programs and services more accessible to and inclusive of persons with disabilities.

Statement of Commitment

The Office of the City Clerk (“City Clerk”) believes in an equitable, diverse, and inclusive environment. The City Clerk is committed to providing persons with disabilities with access to City Clerk’s services; to identifying, preventing and removing barriers to accessibility; and to meeting accessibility requirements in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities.

Consistent with the purpose of the legislation, the City Clerk strives to use reasonable efforts to ensure that its policies, practices and procedures are consistent with the following principles:

- City Clerk services are provided in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities to enable them to obtain, use or benefit from City Clerk resources and/or services;
- Persons with disabilities are given an opportunity equal to that given to others to obtain, use and benefit from City Clerk resources and/or services;
- When communicating with a person with a disability, the City Clerk will do so in a manner that considers the person’s disability and preferred method of communication; and
- Persons with disabilities and their service animals are accommodated in all aspects of service provision unless the animal is otherwise excluded by law.

Agency Mission

Historically, the City Clerk has played a dual role as the Clerk of the City Council and the Clerk of the municipal corporation known as the City of New York (“City”) organized under the Laws of the State of New York.

As the Clerk of the City Council, the main function of the City Clerk is to attest to all laws enacted by the City Council. The City Clerk also attests to all legislation desired by and affecting the City requiring concurrent action by the State Legislature.

In the capacity of City Clerk, he attests to leases and deeds of City property, grants, agreements, bonds, tax notes, and other forms of obligations of the City. The City Clerk has charge of all papers and documents of the City that include executive and administrative orders of the mayor, certificates of judicial appointments by the mayor, oaths of office of City employees, City Marshal bonds, and referendum petitions. Other duties of the City Clerk include the qualification of commissioners of deeds and the certification to the Board of Elections of all judicial vacancies. Aside from these functions, the City Clerk maintains two separate and important bureaus under its jurisdiction: the Lobbying Bureau and the Marriage Bureau.

The Lobbying Bureau is responsible for all compliance and enforcement of the City's Lobbying Law, including the registration of lobbyists, the receipt of reports from lobbyists and clients on their lobbying activities, and both education and outreach. The Lobbying Bureau provides information to the public regarding the content of lobbyist filings, conducts training for lobbyists and their organizations on the law, and works closely with other city agencies such as the Department of Investigation, the Campaign Finance Board and the Conflicts of Interest Board.

The Marriage Bureau provides marriage licenses, domestic partnership registration, civil marriage ceremonies, registration of marriage officiants, copies and amendments of marriage records issued by the City Clerk since 1950, and certificates of non-impediment. The Marriage Bureau has offices in each of the five boroughs of the City.
